

Brighton and Hove Magazines Rate Card 2020

NEW Business Boosting format and
pricing structure

Quick overview...

In the wake of the Coronavirus pandemic we have changed the format of our magazines to create a format and pricing structure to help all local businesses get back on track by allowing them to promote to many more homes for significantly less money per household. Where as previously we printed 7 separate magazines that went to 7 different communities we have now combined these magazines and created two new publications: The BRIGHTONIAN and The HOVARIAN.

Each magazine has editorial sections for each area of the city where they are distributed. They also have a section for citywide articles. The magazines are A5 in size and each publication is distributed to 12000 homes and businesses.

Distribution areas...

Each magazine is delivered to the same houses as we have always delivered to with the areas covered as follows...

The BRIGHTONIAN will be distributed to 12,000 homes and venues in Fiveways, Hanover, Queens Park and Kemptown

The HOVARIAN will be distributed to 12,000 homes and venues in West Hove, Poets Corner and Hove Park.

Both magazines are also placed in multiple pick up points around the city.
