

Brighton and Hove Magazines Rate Card 2023

Quick overview...

In response to the Coronavirus pandemic we changed the format of our magazines to create a format and pricing structure to help all local businesses get back on track by allowing them to promote to many more homes for significantly less money per household. Whereas previously we printed 7 separate magazines that were distributed to 7 different communities we combined these magazines and we created two new publications: The BRIGHTONIAN and The HOVARIAN.

Each magazine has editorial sections for each area of the city where they are distributed. They also have a section for citywide articles. The magazines are A5 in size and each publication is distributed to 12000 homes and businesses.

Distribution areas...

Each magazine is delivered to the same houses as we have always delivered to with the areas covered as follows...

The BRIGHTONIAN is distributed to 12,000 homes and venues in Fiveways, Hanover, Queens Park, North Laine and Kemptown

The HOVARIAN is distributed to 12,000 homes and venues in West Hove, Poets Corner, Hove Park and a section of Central Hove.

Both magazines are also placed in multiple pick up points around the city.
